CIM COLLECTIONS & ARCHIVE

DEDICATIONS
This museum pays homage to our Igorot ancestors who bravely defended their independence and ways of life against Spanish colonial rule and influence. Their defiance – for which they paid the ultimate price – led to the conservation of much of the indigenous pre-Hispanic Filipino cultures. The artifacts exhibited in this museum form part of this priceless heritage.

The Indigenous Peoples Students Center is located within the Museum of Igorot Culture and Arts- Center for Indigenous Studies. In this center, university students coming from the various minority ethnic groups or indigenous peoples of the Cordillera region can come to socialize with each other and/or share/discuss their common issues and concerns as well as those of the wider indigenous peoples in the region and beyond. This also houses a mini-library containing materials on Cordillera societies, cultures, histories, and languages for consultation and learning by the IP students and other interested parties.

Panaki-Binnadang Rapid Rural Appraisal Conducted at Barangay Happy Hallow

Binnadang is a native word that means communal unity, work, and cooperation amongst people to achieve a particular goal for the benefit of everyone in the community. In Filipino, “binnadang” means “bayanihan.” Saint Louis University has been faithfully and consistently living out binnadang, bringing to fruition its mission of reaching out to our brothers and sisters in need.
