VISION & MISSION

- The School of Law (SOL) is envisioned to be committed to provide excellent legal education toward the holistic formation of Christian, ethical, and competent professionals who will dedicate themselves to the service of the community, and will actively contribute to nation building.

SOL HISTORY

- The academic year 1954-1955 marked the birth of Saint Louis University School of Law (then called Saint Louis College of Law) when it was authorized under Temporary Permit No. 365, s. 1954, issued by P.M. Endencia, then Secretary of Education, and recommended by Daniel Salcedo, Assistant Director of Private Schools, to offer the First-Year Law course. In 1955, the College was authorized to offer the Second-Year law course; and in 1956, the College offered First to Third Year classes. In 1957, the Fourth-Year Law course was offered. It was only in 1957 that the College was granted government recognition for the First to Third Year Law Courses. In 1958, the College was granted government recognition to offer the Fourth Year Course.

- During its infancy, the College was reared by law professors in the persons of Dean Francisco Reyes, Judge Federico Cabato, Atty. Fernando Romero, Atty. Conrado Sabelino, Atty. Bernardo Ronquillo, and Judge Jesus De Vera.
- At one time the College was also most fortunate to have in its faculty lineup legal giants such as Chief Justice Manuel V. Moran and Chief Justice Roberto Concepcion.
- During the academic year 2010-2011, the Saint Louis University College of Law changed its name to Saint Louis University School of Law.
