

Saint Louis University

1.4.3 Programs for Services Access

1 NO
POVERTY

Promoting the rights of children and youth in schools and in the communities

Published in: SLU INCLUSIVE EDUCATION RESOURCE CENTER FACEBOOK

A Seminar-Orientation on Promoting the Rights of Children and Youth in Schools and in the Communities with speakers from Commission on Human Rights was provided to pre-service teachers and Social Work student interns.

The objective of the activity was to equip future teachers and social workers with the foundational knowledge on promoting and protecting rights of children and youth in their education institutions and immediate communities. It is also to raise awareness on advocacies that protect human rights in general.

This was sponsored by the SLU-Inclusive Education Resource Center, Social Work Dept, Professional Educ Dept of the School of Teacher Education and Liberal Arts
March 23, 2024 at SLU-P700

From https://www.facebook.com/permalink.php?story_fbid=pfbidORZYJvjgjM9xnqJTSwweVDMfQJV2W6z1iqSMqfmZ1bb8M8nb9cZw4Ao66Cc6gNtXWl&id=100086361667660

1 NO POVERTY

Binnadang Health Fair

Published in: SAINT LOUIS UNIVERSITY WEBSITE

The second Binnadang Health Fair, conducted on 6 July 2024, was a response to the evaluation of the first health fair outreach activity. Volunteer doctors and nurses from the Health Services Unit conducted a minor circumcision operation called Project Tuli for adolescent boys.

On the other hand, volunteer guidance associates, counselors, school psychologists, and psychometricians from the Basic Education Program and College Department conducted a Psychological First Aid (PFA) Training and Workshop for the Barangay Officials of Happy Hallow. Mrs. Nerissa T. Gonzalo, RGC, was the main speaker at the PFA Training. This training aimed to make psychological services accessible to all.

From https://www.slu.edu.ph/2024/07/18/slu-ceopo-conducts-binnadang-health-fair-outreach-activities/fbclid=IwY2xjawF1dsxleHRuA2FlbQlXMQABHZso0gGpL_rKwRyMrUo8o8DV8PFrEu0AUeZ5OD5xLKzBXMuJniS18v5mFw_aem_uew7wBwkIV-wse21_5o6kw

