In his opening message during the Festival, Rev. Fr. Gilbert B. Sales, CICM, PhD remarked, “My dear Louisians, I am thrilled to welcome you all to our first ever holding of the Festival of Champions. A celebration of creativity, talent, and hardwork in music, dance, drama, and digital arts.” Showcasing the exceptional winning entries of the talented students who have poured their hearts and souls into their crafts, Rev. Fr. Sales affirmed that he is constantly inspired by their dedication and passion and is proud to see their talents on display for the audience to enjoy.

The performers from the different schools took center stage with their mesmerizing and breathtaking performances, celebrating the fruits of their hard work for the love of culture and the arts.

SLU CCA Dance Festival 2024 takes the spotlight

Exhibiting mesmerizing and graceful movements from the plethora of dance categories, Saint Louis University's (SLU) Center for Culture and Arts (CCA) hosted the 2024 Dance Festival at Prince Bernhard Gymnasium on 12 March 2024. The event brought together the students from the various schools of SLU.

Mr. Sherwin Santiago, Chairman of this school year's SLU Dance Festival, Trainer and Choreographer of the SLU Dance Troupe welcomed the participants from elementary to college. In Mr. Santiago's opening remarks said, "This annual gathering will continue to serve as a platform for showcasing the rich tapestry of Louisian artistry through the medium of dance. Over the past years, the Arts Festival, particularly the Dance Festival, has transcended to a mere competition. It has evolved into a sacred space for dancers, choreographers, and artists to express their creativity and excellence. We are not here just to compete, we are here because we belong."

Kicking off the start of the 2024 Dance Festival was the parade of participants along with a unity dance. An invocation was then held followed by the National Anthem.

‘Entablado’: Staging Arts, Culture, and History

When you step into the elegantly familiar double doors of the Fr. Joseph Van den Daelen, CICM Center for Culture and the Arts Theater, you're embraced by the majestic presence of the Theater's sophistication. From its towering ceilings, rich red velvet draperies and opulent seats, to polished wood surfaces that reflect a soft and warm golden glow from the theater lights, the Theater's sheer beauty is overwhelming as a home of artistic talents and passions dedicated to uplift the human experience through timeless stories and performances. It ushers the audience into a different world.

In wide-eyed wonder, CCA Theater gleams even more brightly with the ovation-worthy production dubbed as "Entablado," SLU CCA's major production that celebrates the original musicals presented through the years. It is without a doubt that through it, arts, culture, and history have taken the center stage- well accompanied by songs, dances, and music; and of artistry, creativity, and story.

SLU-CCA cultivates creativity and expression through Drama Fest 2024
