The Fr. Joseph Van den Daelen, Center for Culture and the Arts (CCA) is envisioned as a creative and excellent center that harnesses and optimizes the potential of both the student-artist as well as the educators, through the significant programs that promote cultural awareness and the Christian spirit, develop artistry and competence in the arts, and the provision of quality facilities and services to the University and the community. The CCA has a seating capacity of 1,000 and is open for reservation for both free and paid public performances.

The Fr. Gevers Conference Hall. The Fr. Gevers Hall used to be the university's chapel. It was newly renovated into a function hall and was named of Fr. Gerard Marcel Francis Gevers, a CICM missionary and philosopher, and the founder of CHIRO Philippines, who dedicated his life to the promotion of the wellbeing of the Filipino youth through scholarly education and integral human and Christian formation. This conference hall is equipped to meet the requirements of conferences and seminars, as well as small performances. The single floor conference hall can accommodate 300 guests open for all reservations.

SLU Parish role is to assist in the realization of the vision, mission and goals of Saint Louis University and of the Diocese of Baguio, through the empowerment of its students, faculty, non-teaching personnel and administrative personnel. As a Christian community, SLU Parish seeks to stimulate, nurture and challenge one another spiritually and intellectually through its ministries in order to live a Christ-centered life. It is a full-pledged parish, and not merely a chaplaincy, with all the programs and sacramental responsibilities of such. The hope of the Parish at SLU is to form small groups of Christian disciples who worship, hear God's Word and become Good news for each other, building therefore a new world order according to God's plan. Indeedm St. Aloysius Gonzaga provides free access to the public.
