The University Park is an open space that serves as restoration and rejuvination due to the serene and green surroundings, symbolic trees, and meticulously cultivated plants, coupled with the sight and sound of crystal water from the fountain. The fountain itself is an icon of the university for many ages, and people enjoy sitting around it while having snacks and telling stories with friends or family members. The University Park is located at the heart of the SLU campus, which makes it impossible to miss whenever people enter the university for any purpose. The general public has free access to the SLU parks during graduations, special programs, and parish activities.
