The Saint Louis University (SLU) Kataas-taasang Sanggunian ng mga Mag-aara/ Supreme Student Council (KASAMA/ SSC) held its general election from 9-11 October 2024 with the theme KAKAILIAN: Leadership Through Honor and Inclusivity. The KASAMA/ SSC is the student-governing body that:

- officially communicates to the administration the students' needs and concerns
- participates in the discussion or crafting of university policies, specifically those that concern the Louisian students, and
- provides leadership development skills.

The presence of the students' union in the University demonstrates the SLU's commitment to ensuring student representation and participatory governance, which aligns with Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions (SDG 16).

I, Navi, invite you to participate in this year's "KASAMA/SSC General Elections 2024 – 2025," in line with the theme KAKAILIAN: Leadership Through Honor and Inclusivity. Let's take that crucial step together as we elect the next student leaders who will embody these values, inspiring hope and driving positive transformation for our university.

Saint Louis University will have its annual "KASAMA/SSC 2024 General Elections" this coming October 9-11, 2024, through online setting at kasama.slu.edu.ph, or on-site on October 10 at Devesse Building (D-722 and D-725), and October 11 at Perfecto (P-502 and P-509) and Hahn Building (H510A-B and H511A-B).

Cast your vote with informed choices, Louisians!

The Saint Louis University Supreme Student Council (SSC) ensured that the welfare of the students was regarded in the proposed Tuition and Other Fees increase. Through the SSC, the 9% proposed increase was lowered to 6.25%.

The consultation exemplifies the contribution of student leaders in building strong institutions as espoused by SDG 16 - Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions.

KASAMA/ SSC Represents Students in Administration Committees

KASAMA/ SSC President or representative is included in the administration committees to ensure that the voice of the students is championed in institutional decision-making. Student representation in the Administrative Committees ensures that policies or decisions are grounded in the needs of the Louisian students. This fosters a more participatory Louisian campus.

This practice aligns with inclusive governance and accountability within the Louisian community, which is aligned with Peace, Justice and Strong Institutions (SDG 16).

The Saint Louis University (SLU) Commission on Elections (COMELEC) conducted senatorial mock elections on April 10-16, 2025. This activity underscored the essential role of educated decision-making and active engagement in civic processes.

By engaging with this activity, students contribute to building a culture that fosters accountable governance and inclusive decision-making, which are the central tenets of Justice, Peace, and Strong Institutions (SDG 16).

SLU SSC co-hosts ANIDO: The 2025 Philippine Senatorial Forum

Published in the SLU Supreme Student Council FB Page:

<https://www.slu.edu.ph/2025/04/07/slu-hosts-anido-the-2025-philippine-senatorial-forum/>

Promoting civic engagement and youth participation, Saint Louis University (SLU) welcomed senatorial aspirants during the “ANIDO: The 2025 Philippine Senatorial Forum” on 06 April 2025, at the Fr. Joseph Van den Daelen, CICM – Center for Culture and the Arts Theater in SLU, Baguio City.

Organized in partnership with the SLU Supreme Student Council (SSC) and Junior Chamber International (JCI) Baguio Sunflower, the forum brought together 20 senatoriables to present their platforms and engage in meaningful discussions ahead of the upcoming national elections. “Anidu” or Anido is a Kankana-ey word that generally refers to the act of warming yourself near a fire.

By hosting ANIDO, SLU reaffirmed its role not just as an academic institution, but as a catalyst for informed and empowered citizenship. The event not only gave voters a closer look at potential leaders but also reminded everyone of the power of collective dialogue in shaping the nation’s future.

This proves that Saint Louis University is a living testament to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), particularly SDG 16: Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions, SDG 4: Quality Education, and SDG 17: Partnerships for the Goals.
