Outsourced Employees of Saint Louis University

Saint Louis University (SLU) ensures that all individuals working on campus—including those employed through third-party service providers—are treated with fairness, dignity, and professionalism. SLU requires contractors to uphold labor standards consistent with the University's values, including nondiscrimination, respect in the workplace, and adherence to ethical conduct.

By promoting safe working conditions, respectful interactions, and equal treatment in daily operations, SLU helps guarantee that outsourced personnel enjoy workplace rights equivalent to those of its directly employed staff.
