OGRAA GUIDELINES AND MANUALS

Serving as a vibrant catalyst for global synergy, the Office of Global Relations and Alumni Affairs, also known as the International Teahouse, is elevating higher education by fostering fluid student and staff mobility, rich intercultural understanding, and transformative global partnerships. By providing readily available online guidelines and active processing forms for MOUs, MOAs, and linkages, the office keeps its digital doors wide open for prospective international partners to continuously connect and collaborate. This initiative directly champions United Nations Sustainable Development Goal 16 (Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions): by streamlining cross-border institutional ties and nurturing inclusive dialogue, it actively strengthens institutional frameworks and lays a resilient foundation for lasting global harmony.
