CHAPTER III STUDENT WELFARE AND INSTITUTIONAL STUDENT PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

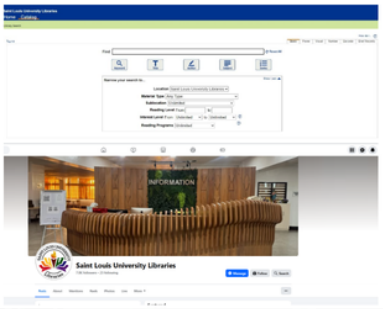

K. Sports Development Programs - The Athletics Office provides excellent and comprehensive athletic/sports programs and services to our athletes, students, employees, as well as SLU dependents and other sports enthusiasts. Programs are designed to develop self-discipline, attitude, respect to others and the Louisian community as well. It encourages student-athletes to become more effective and efficient in and off the court. It also provides a safe and good training and competition facilities based from National and International standards. The office promotes sports as an effective vehicle for holistic and social development. The office conducts and manages sports activities such as intramurals, inter-employees, sports clinics and tutorials which are scheduled annually. The office also grants scholarships to deserving student-athletes in accordance with the school standards and policy. A court is located at the Prince Bernard Gym of the SLU Administration Building and a wellness-fitness gym located at the De Haes/P.E. Building.

M. University Libraries – The University Libraries are housed in the six-storey Msgr. Charles Vath building located at the central area of the campus. It provides a spacious and conducive avenue for intellectual activities designed for patron's research and study. It also embraces various media of print, non-print materials and electronic resources. The SLU Libraries also maintain a Webpage via the SLU website. The University Libraries are open from 7:30 AM to 7:00 PM and on Sundays from 1:00 PM to 5:00 PM.

R. Social-Conference-Workshop Halls and Gymnasia – Facilities for big or small group activities on a first-come-first-served basis with the necessary sound and light arrangements.

Research Support Services: Assistance with finding, organizing, and citing academic materials

The UNL is easily accessible through its Facebook page, online public access catalog, and dedicated email addresses, with librarians available to assist and address concerns from stakeholders.
Information literacy helps users seek, evaluate, and utilize relevant resources to organize and create information that supports the academic needs of students and faculty. It also aims to update and promote the various resources available at the UNL.

These policies, established over ten years ago, and reviewed in 2023, remain in force and continue to uphold inclusive, equitable access to learning at SLU, in line with SDG 4.
